

At The Speech Language Network (SLN), we are seeking a passionate and knowledgeable Speech Language Pathologist to join our collaborative team. In this role, depending on your experience and areas of expertise, you may work with toddlers, preschoolers, school-aged children, teenagers, or adult clients. Work is primarily based out of our Saskatoon location at 410 Jessop Avenue, with occasional off-site sessions as needed.

We are looking for a strength-based, self-directed professional who thrives in a multidisciplinary environment and is committed to supporting speech-language development across the lifespan.

What we are Looking for:

- A Master's degree in Speech-Language Pathology (required)
- Be eligible for, and licensed by, the College Of Speech Language Pathologists & Audiologists Saskatchewan (CSASK)
- Experience working with diverse learners and adapting instruction to meet individual needs
- Have a valid driver's license
- Criminal Record / Vulnerable Sector Check

What You'll Do:

- Assessment: Conduct informal and standardized assessments to identify speech-language strengths, needs and goals.
- Intervention: Design and deliver individualized or small-group speech-language therapy programs using evidence-based practices.
- Consultation: Collaborate with families, educators, and other professionals to support speech-language development and home programming.
- Documentation: Maintain accurate records, session notes, and progress reports in a timely manner.
- Professional Growth: Engage in ongoing learning and contribute to a culture of excellence and innovation.

What we offer:

- Flexible hours and competitive compensation.
- Access to all formal assessment tools, selection of games, materials and resources.
- Access to our clinical management system to organize everything.
- Full administrative staff to handle intake, scheduling and billing.
- Opportunities for collaboration and professional development.
- A supportive, team-oriented environment.
- Ability to offer both in person and virtual therapy.

It's an exciting time for us and a great time for you to join our team.
